Eld Herman Bassett is holding a protracted meeting at Prairie Hill which will run over Sunday.

Capt. Benecke and Fritz Sasse of Brunswick on their way home from Glasgow, took in the moving picture show here Monday night and were delighted with the "Life of Moses," depicted on the screen.

Died at the home of her husband, one half mile east of town, Saturday morning August 29th 1911, Sarah Wright, aged nearly 74 years. In the passing of Mrs. Wright, Salisbury township loses another of her pioneer's. A woman who performed life's duties well and who leaves behind her a name and a record, worthy of the life she lived. She was a domestic, devoted Christian and her greatest virtues shone in her home life, which she devoted to her husband, children and friends. She leaves one son, and four grandsons, with many relatives and friends to mourn her death. After funeral services at the home, her remains were laid to rest in cemetery Sunday afternoon to await the call of the resurrection.

Aunt Lou Good, a good old colored woman, well known here, died Sunday and was buried Monday. Deceased raised a large family of children, before whom she set a good example in habits of industry and fair dealing, and her death brings to a close of a long and useful life. Her husband has been dead many years.

Pee Dee Prattle.

Prof. Curtis Chane Principal of the Windsor school, and wife returned from their tour in the West last Tuesday.

The election here last Tuesday was so quiet a traveling man thought there was a funeral in town.

Mendon failed to show up last week therefore we had no ball game and consequently lost out an ice cream supper that was scheduled to follow in the evening.

Henderson Washam of Salisbury visited his brother, Robert last week.

A bumper corn crop is now the prospect and a few more showers will complete the job.

Dr. Griffith reports Chas. Smith in a critical condition and his recovery is doubtful.

Some of our people saw the carnival at Salisbury last Saturday and are able to give a graphic description of what they saw.

Mrs. John Palmer is at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Graves Jr., residing at Mike, who is ill with the fever.

Pee Dee and Bynumville played ball on Pee Dee diamond Wednesday. Score is not known.

Joe Sutton reports the biggest fish catch of the season, an 80-pound cat and several weighing from 30 to 50 pounds. How is that for Chariton river fishing.

Dinner Bell of the House of Commons. The question of the limitation of speeches which has been raised in the house recalls the giants of the past who killed time in the house with their mouths. There was David Hartley, for instance, the sound "Dinner Bell" of the commons. On one occasion he got up to speak, and Sir Robert Walpole, appreciating the truth of that saying about the ill wind that benefits nobody—got up too. He took the opportunity of taking his ride, and went home, changed his dress for riding costume, rode to Hampton, returned, put on full dress and came down to the house, when he found David Hartley still on his feet, not having finished his speech."—London Chronicle.

They Are Tinkering With Pisa. According to the findings of a royal commission appointed to investigate the present condition of the Leaning Tower of Pisa, it appears that, instead of being supported on a massive foundation, the tower rests on a ring-shaped masonry base, with an inner diameter of 24 feet 3 1/2 inches, exactly the same as the inner diameter of the tower. The tower is about 177 feet high, and in 1829 is said to have been 14 feet 5 inches out of plumb; since that time its inclination has been increased by an additional 3.0055 foot per foot of its height. In 1824 an earthquake caused a deflection of about five inches.

Mrs. A. M. Fellows.

The Why of Lawyer's Busy Monday. "A lawyer gets more callers on Monday than on any other day of the week," remarked an attorney. "If he lives in the country his front door bell will begin to ring before he is out of bed, and if he has a city office there is likely to be a line of clients waiting."

"The reason is that on Sunday families get together and talk over their intimate affairs, and one of these is sometimes a suit they are thinking of beginning, and so one of their number is appointed to see the lawyers, and he comes down Monday morning. Of course this is more noticeable in the country than in town, but I have found that human nature works the same way in metropolitan or rural circles."

In Case of a Fall.

Not enough attention is paid to the falls of childhood. Mothers get so used to children tumbling around that they take it quite lightly unless bones are broken.

It should be remembered that injuries to the soft bones of a child may do permanent harm, especially if there be a head hurt.

Keep the child quiet for a time who has had a hard fall, bathe the part freely with some soothing lotion, and if there seems to be trouble that does not yield to simple home remedies, send for a doctor at once.

The Diverse Industry.

The man and his wife had met a fellow traveler on a train and got to talking, as travelers do.

"We are from Reno," said the man, after they had become better acquainted.

"Not really?" exclaimed the stranger. "And you are still married? How does that happen?"

"Oh, that's easy! You see, we don't have them for home consumption, but entirely for foreign trade."—Judge

OIL AT 8 CTS.

MR. FARMER:

We want to advise you that we have arranged with the Standard Oil Co. for a carload of steel barrels, which can be used for storage tanks. These barrels are for your use and should last a lifetime. When empty, load on to your wagon, bring to town and we will fill them with PERFECTION OIL—the best water white oil on the market—and you can get it from us at any and all times.

Read following description of the Steel Barrels:

Made from 18 inch gauge steel, welded throughout, chimneys reinforced by 5-8 inch iron bar, 2 inch bung and 1-4 inch vent plug in one end, galvanized both inside and outside, painted black on outside. A 3-4 inch brass lever faucet with each barrel. Take out vent plug, screw in faucet and you have an ideal tank.

Notice the Low Prices:

One of these barrels filled with 51 gallons
